Invitation

We extend a warm invitation to you to attend our fifth annual Grace Discipleship Conference “Keeping in Step: Following the Leading of the Holy Spirit.” We know that many believers want to follow the leading of the Holy Spirit but are often unsure of what that looks like. Does the Spirit speak audibly and directly so I know exactly what to do? Does He whisper? Is it that “still, small voice”? Does He speak through others? Is there a formula for following the leading of the Spirit?

Because we are transformed by God’s grace, we are to “put off the old man” and “put on the new man” as Paul tells us in Ephesians. To “put on the new man” we need to be led by the Holy Spirit. Having the desire to be led by God’s Spirit presupposes that when we hear His voice we will follow Him and not the multitude of voices from our culture. Not only do we need to know what the voice of the Holy Spirit sounds like, but also how to follow His leading. We need the Spirit’s direction as we walk each day in a fallen world.

Don’t continue to be frustrated in your attempt to live out the transforming work of the Spirit. Come learn how you can keep in step by following the leading of the Holy Spirit. Join us February 26 and 27 for a weekend of transformation. Register online (GraceBrethren.org, keyword: step) or call 614-410-3212.
